Garden Of Angels Lurlene Mcdaniel

Garden of Angels. It is 1974 and the country is still struggling to come to terms with the Vietnam War. In the small town of Conners, Georgia, Darcy has just started high school, her older sister Adel goes to weekend dances at the local Army base, and their mother tends her beautiful garden—the biggest and best in town. But Darcy's world is soon changed forever when her mother goes to Atlanta for tests.

Garden of Angels | Lurlene McDaniel

Lurlene McDaniel is one of my most favorite authors, and this book is by far one of the most inspiring books you could ever read. It's about a girl whose beloved mother gets struck with breast cancer, and her world is never the same again. McDaniel writes with such flair that you can hardly bring yourself to put the book down.

Lurlene McDaniel has specialized in writing hard-hitting but inspirational novels about teenagers that have been widely praised by teachers, librarians, as well as teenagers. Garden of Angels is her newest novel, and in it she takes on the ravages that breast cancer in a young mother can inflict on the entire family. Since this savage disease has attacked many women and their families, this story should touch many a reader.

Garden of Angels by Lurlene McDaniel Book Review

In Garden of Angels, Lurlene McDaniel uses first person to tell Darcy's story about her life. Ms. McDaniel uses very good diction in this book. She uses very big words to emphasize descriptions and puts pictures in our minds. Ms. McDaniel captures our attentions and she writes as if any minute, something exciting will happen, and it always does.
