MAKING A LITERARY LIFE by Carolyn See | Kirkus Reviews

As with another of my favorite books, the late Barbara Grizzuti Harrison's "Italian Days," Carolyn See's "Making a Literary Life" is as much about the author as it is about the stated subject. See's subject, of course, is how to make your way as a writer--not only how to write, but how to get your writing published and make your name known in the literary world.

Making a Literary Life book by Carolyn See

I give the book "MAKING A LITERARY LIFE" a 10 rating. I learned a lot from this book. I have already re-read it once to gain new inspiration. This book provides invaluable tips about information only a well-published writer like C. See could know. The author provides lots of real life stories about how writers achieved success.
