This is an Edwardian gem of a book for children and a true classic. It tells the story of three children, Roberta, Peter and Phyllis, who have to move from their smart suburban residence to a cottage in the country. This move occurs after their father suddenly and mysteriously has to go away on "business".

We've teamed up with Railway Children – a charity that supports children who run away or are forced to leave home – to develop the Safeguarding on Transport programme. Together, we work to raise awareness across the rail industry about how to identify and protect people at risk on our rail network.
